

AFTER THE SUMMER'S HEAT

Society is Willing to Settle Down to a Ball Room's Temperatures.

COTILLION MORE THAN THE FOURSOME

Coming of Fall Brings on the Fever for Dancing and Golf is Forgotten in the Mazes of the Waltz.

Modern Romance.

Henry M. Blossom, Jr., in Smart Set. Information, speculation, fluctuation, rain-ation. Disipation, degradation, reformation of starvation. Application, situation; occupation, restoration. A vacation.

Destination, country station. Nice location. Recreation. Exploration; observation; fascination—a flirtation. Trepidation, hesitation, conversation, simulation. Invitation, acclamation, sequestration, cold libation.

Just at present the cotillion and dancing party promise to figure prominently among the social affairs that are to help society pass the winter, and among the very smartest of these is a series of four cotillions to be given by a newly organized club, known as the Holiday club. Each of the four parties is to be entertained at the home of some one of the members.

The announcement that last week would close the season for the cafe at the Country club seemed to induce added interest to everything out Benson way and took crowds of people out there to enjoy every fine day. The season, however, will close the most enjoyable hops of the season, in spite of the storm.

Cards are out for another large church wedding and this week invitations are to be issued for another. These two will close the list of weddings expected for the immediate future, but no one would be greatly surprised to hear of at least one more large affair before the holidays.

Misses Laura Condon, Marion Sonnell, Mary Bedwell, Fae Towne, Faith Horle, June Phelps, Bessie Morehead, Zola Delake, Miss Peterson and Miss Randall composed a party of Omaha young women who went to Lincoln yesterday morning to attend the foot ball game in the afternoon between the High schools. While there they were the guests of the Kappa Alpha Theta, being met at the station and taken to the fraternity houses, where luncheon was served them.

Pleasures Past.

Mrs. William Broatch entertained a party of forty women at euchre on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Robert Dempster gave a very delightful tea yesterday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. Hester of Des Moines.

Miss Daisy Higgins entertained a party of musical friends most pleasantly on Thursday evening at a Halloween party.

Miss Allen, Miss Edith Smith, Miss Lomax, Mr. Heath and Mr. Paxton were Mr. Benn's guests at a supper at the Country club last evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Ewing Brown entertained about thirty members of the senior class of the Omaha Medical college on Thursday evening.

The Bon Ton Card club met with Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Robertson on Monday evening. This was the first of their meetings this fall and the evening proved most enjoyable.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Bloomstock gave a whist party on Tuesday evening, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. F. Gebhart, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cahm and Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Danforth. Supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gradwohl gave a box party at the Boyd on Friday evening in honor of their mother, Mrs. E. C. Gradwohl of St. Louis. After the opera the party was given a supper at the Henshaw.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Campbell entertained at dinner last evening in honor of Mrs. Campbell's cousin, Lieutenant Wade, and Miss Blanche Lowe. These marriage is to occur on Monday, November 4.

The members of the R. N. J. club were very pleasantly entertained on Thursday evening at the home of Miss Anna Stuart, on Corby street. Music and Halloween games constituted the evening's entertainment.

In honor of Miss Mae Heller, Miss Hanchen Rehfeld and some of the visiting young women, Miss Laura Goetz entertained at a luncheon at Metropolitan club on Saturday.

Mrs. Z. T. Lindsey gave a very pretty luncheon at the Country club on Friday, in honor of Mrs. Brinker and Mrs. Hewitt of Des Moines. The table decorations were of red carnations and the other guests were Mesdames Dempster, Charles Hewitt, Guthrie, Wilhelm and Miss Allen.

Miss Mungler, Miss Peck, Miss Lomax, Miss Carlin, Miss Morse, Mr. Sam Burns, Mr. Keogh, Mr. Lee, Mr. Shaban, Mr. Dan Baum, Mr. Ezra Millard and Dr. Nelson Mercer were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barker, Jr., at a chafin dish supper on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Mary Smith was hostess at Tuesday's meeting of the South Side Whist club at her home, Thirty-second and Cary streets, the prizes of the afternoon being awarded to Mrs. Taggart and Miss Taggart. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. John Currey, on Sherman avenue.

Metropolitan club gave the first of its series of informal evenings on Wednesday, bowling, furnishing the entertainment. These very pleasant affairs will be given regularly during the winter and at the close of the season a prize will be awarded for the highest score and the highest average.

For Miss Buxbaum and Miss Starnes of Chicago, Miss Lillian Hellman of Cincinnati, Misses Mae Rothschild and Hattie Rehfeld, Mr. Julius Meyer gave a box party at the Boyd on Saturday evening and after the theater, supper at Metropolitan club. Mrs. M. Hellman of Cincinnati chaperoned the party.

A merry party of young people were entertained on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Baranum, 2813 Shirley street. Diving for apples and catching those suspended on strings was rewarded with popcorn, nuts and gingersnaps, while all the other games enrolled on the list of Halloween diversions were employed for the evening's entertainment.

Mrs. E. G. Gordon entertained the members of the Hanscom Park Club very pleasantly last evening at her home at 3022 Pacific street.

Mrs. C. M. Eaton entertained at her home Thursday afternoon. The puzzling "floral rebuses," the unique "Trilby" and the music guessing contest were all surprises and kept the crowd busy and in good humor. Carnations, roses, chrysanthemums and cosmos artistically decorated the rooms and dainty refreshments were neatly served.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Scofield, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scofield, Mrs. Short and Mr. William Kendall of Cleveland spent last Monday in Omaha, enroute to the ranch of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Paxton, Jr., for a hunting trip. While here they were Mrs. Wear's guests at luncheon at the Omaha club and in the evening were given a supper there. The party left on the late evening train for the west.

A delightful surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. George P. Cronk on Tuesday evening, the occasion being their tin wedding anniversary. The affair proved a complete surprise and most enjoyable in every respect. High society was the guest of the evening, the prizes being won by Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and the consolation awards going to Mr. O'Brien and Mrs. Ainscow. After the game, in an appropriate speech, Mr. Beach Taylor presented Mr. and Mrs. Cronk a chafin dish.

Miss Cotton was hostess at a jolly Halloween party on Thursday evening at Forest Hill, eighteen congenial spirits spending a most enjoyable evening at music and appropriate games. The rooms and halls were decked with the Halloween's trimmings and lighted with jack-o'-lanterns, and late in the evening supper was served. The party consisted of Misses Allen, Lomax, Cleveland, Edith Smith, Carita Curtice, Peck, Tukey and Spurgeon, Messrs. Lake, Haskell, McShane, Yates, Sam Burns, Fred Nash, Keogh, Dan Baum and Tukey.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reynolds, at Florence, Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Porterfield entertained in a most delightful manner on Wednesday evening, a large party of friends being present in spite of the storm. Throughout the house the color scheme of red and white was carried out in detail, flowers being used for the greater part of the decorations. High society was the guest of the evening, the score cards being marked with designs in scarlet and white.

In compliment to Miss Crouse, Mrs. W. J. C. Kenyon gave a small kensington yesterday afternoon at her home on Harney street.

Mrs. William E. Guthrie was hostess at 5 o'clock on Thursday evening in honor of her guests, Mrs. Silas Guthrie, Mrs. Hewitt of Denver and Mrs. Charles Hewitt of Des Moines. The decorations were suggestive of Halloween, a huge pumpkin filled with fruit, constituted the most effective centerpiece, while yellow and white chrysanthemums trimmed the room. Mesdames Jordan, Lindsey, Davis, Dempster, Potter, Ogden, Bunker, Clapp and Miss Allen assisted Mrs. Guthrie. A number of men were asked in to dinner and with the assisting women constituted a party for six-hundred euchre in the evening. About sixty guests were present in the afternoon.

In honor of Miss Buxbaum of Chicago Mrs. Hugo Brandeis entertained in her usual charming way on Tuesday afternoon, a most unique floral game having been provided for the pleasure of her guests. Miss Laura Goetz and Miss Hanchen Rehfeld proved the fortunate prize winners. The dining room and table were handsomely trimmed with pink. On the table, in the midst of the pink-shaded tapers, was a centerpiece of pink roses, from which extended pink satin streamers, to the ends of which were attached boxes of bonbons, which marked the places of the ten guests.

Miss Cora P. Swartz entertained the friends very pleasantly on Saturday evening with a parlor musical at her home in Kountze Place.

Metropolitan club was the scene on Friday evening of the first real large ball of the season, which was given by Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gradwohl. The new and newly renovated club was handsomely decorated with cut flowers, palms and ferns, which, with the brilliant lighting, magnificent costumes and music, presented a scene of exceptional brilliancy. In the receiving party were: Mr. and Mrs. Ingram, Mr. and Mrs. Whitney, Mesdames J. H. Munn, S. L. Kelly, W. H. Sherraden, Charles Urquhart, Palmanti and C. M. Van Buren assisting. Mrs. Ingram wore a beautiful toilet of black and white mousseline, while Mrs. Whitney's gown was of black silk brocaded tulle over turquoise blue silk. Downstairs in the dining room an elaborate supper was served after 10 o'clock, the guests being seated at small tables.

THE NOVEMBER DAYS

From the naked and desolate tree tops the shrill-piped harbingers of early snows have dropped hints that brief November, traveling along over its rich mosaic pathway of dead leaves, will bring to this store the greatest business activity that it has yet experienced—that money-spenders shall find it more profitable trading here—more satisfactory—more pleasing. We are talking deliberately. We know how to handle merchandise so that the consumer shall buy most advantageously—to handle the store government so that the most comfort and economy shall ensue for you—to master retailing art that it shall be said of the store: "It's a brilliant piece of retailing that The Nebraska is rounding up the year with."
